August 28, 1911.

Pres. E. Churchill King,
Oberlin College,
Oberlin, Ohio.

My dear Doctor King:-

I had the pleasure of working with Mrs. Anna J. Cooper in Washington D. C. where she was active in behalf of "The Colored Social Settlement".

It seemed to me that she was ideally fitted for this work. Her judgment was excellent. Her evident culture appeals to all who meet her. She was truly devoted to the interests of less resourceful people and she gave her talents generously.

I also saw something of her philanthropic work while she was principal of the M Street High School.
It seemed to me that she was especially broad spirited, intelligent and effective in all she did.

Altogether, in a city where there are a large number of cultured, resourceful, public spirited colored people, Mrs. Cooper proved herself to be one of the most helpful workers for the intelligent advancement of the best interests of less fortunate colored people.
Mrs. Keller and I had great pleasure and profit in working with her.

Very truly yours,

General Secretary.
